Bethel budget draft shows small increase

Selectmen's draft up less than three percent, but school tax increase not yet included

The Bethel selectmen Monday evening gave tentative approval to a proposed town budget of $1,182,280 for the coming fiscal year.

The budget, which does not include school or county assessments, is up 2.3 percent from the current year's budget.

The proposal must now be reviewed by the town's budget committee, and then be submitted to the annual town meeting in June.

Town Manager Madeleine Henley said the budget committee is expected to complete its review of the proposal by April 8.

Henley said the major factors in the rise were increased costs for debt service and fire hydrant rental.

The town's debt service is budgeted to jump from $16,500 this year to $47,100 next year, she said, due to the need to service loans for the downtown revitalization project.

And the town's fire hydrant rental fee, which is paid to the Bethel Water District, is set to nearly double, rising from $24,758 this year, to $45,000 in the coming year.

The town's hydrant rental fee has been the same for a number of years, Henley said, but she was recently informed by Water District Commissioner Bob Saunders that the state Public Utilities Commission requires a water district to make 30 percent of its income from hydrant rental. The increased fee to the town, Saunders said, was necessary if the district is to meet that requirement.

Other budget increases, Henley said, include a $6,000 rise in the general assistance account (currently at $2,000), a $10,000 increase in workers compensation costs (currently $26,000) and increases in employee health insurance. This last increase, Henley noted, will come from money that would have otherwise been available for salary increases.

The only new capital equipment purchase proposed by the selectmen is for a $31,000 backhoe/loader for the

Eighth-graders once again score well in state testing

Local students outperform state average while improving on their own scores as fourth-graders

For the second year in a row, Telstar Middle School eighth-graders have scored above the state average in all categories of the Maine Educational Assessment.

The recently released scores for the November round of testing (see box, page 2) show the local youngsters performing from 15 to 35 points better than their peers statewide in all six content areas measured during the testing.

The local scores were also above those for school districts with economic and social indicators similar to those of SAD #44.

Still more importantly, the current class of eighth-graders significantly improved its performance since taking the fourth-grade version of the MEA in 1986-87. And the improvement was most striking in the key content areas of reading and mathematics.

This last comparison is especially important to school officials, since the relative improvement or deterioration in a given class' performance over time is considered to be a more valid indicator of a school district's effectiveness than are year-to-year fluctuations in the achievement levels of different classes.

Just over 80 percent of the current class of eighth-graders took the MEA's as fourth-graders in SAD #44. As a group these students improved their performance (and bested the state

Town budget up; selectmen balk at fees set by Bethel

Gilead residents assembling for their annual town meeting Saturday will be asked to approve a municipal budget up 27 percent from last year.

Selectman Fernand Corriveau said the increase in the budget is due mainly to a rise in insurance costs and an increase in the highway account.

The total budget proposed for the highway department is $21,220, compared to $13,720 for last year's budget. Corriveau explained that part of the increase is due to the fact that Gilead will be paying a portion of the state's cost for repairing Gilead's bridge over the Androscoggin River this summer.

Corriveau estimated that if everything is approved at the town meeting, the town's tax rate (last year: $18.95 per $1,000 of assessed valuation) would go up by roughly four mills. "But if the townspeople take additional money out of surplus, that would reduce it," he said.

The town will also continue its debate over paying Bethel's availability fees for fire protection and ambulance service.

Town budget down a bit; school taxes will also drop

Woodstock voters will wrap up the local town meeting season Monday evening, and, however they choose to vote, they will probably be the only area taxpayers who can expect to see their property tax bills go down this year.

The Woodstock selectmen have recommended a municipal budget (exclusive of school expenses) for the current year of $492,000, down $41,000 from the current year's budget.

Many other area selectmen have also brought their towns' municipal budgets in lower than last year, only to see the savings eaten up by ex-

Voters approve town salary hikes, worry about DEP dump penalties

In about an hour at last week's annual town meeting, 30 Upton residents approved 39 articles and appropriated $63,000 for municipal and school funding for the coming year.

Of the $63,000 approved, $35,059 will be raised through taxation the rest appropriated from surplus, according to tor and treasurer, and Pat Lewitt was also re-elected to a three year term as selectman. Voters elected Arthur Couture as a school committee member.

Raises proposed for most of the elected officials were unanimously approved. LeComte said the raises would Upton's tax rate, which was $7 per $1,000 of assessed valuation last year, should stay at about that rate or a little lower depending on this year's state valuation, LeComte said.

After electing Steve Wight of Newry to moderate the meeting, residents elected town officials. Clayton Thompson was re-elected as clerk, tax collec-

Also approved was $14,301 for tuition of two students to SAD #44, $13,000 for town office expenses, $7,000 for insurance costs, $6,000 to establish a sand shed account, $2,000 for fire protection and $1,500 for the town's cemetery.

Career week: real work in the real world

Telstar High School juniors and seniors were spread out all along the East Coast last week, exploring possible occupations as part of career week.

According to Telstar Principal Ted Davis, most of the students worked in and around the Bethel area, but two students worked at Sea World in Florida and two worked in Boston.

Jennifer Gould and Kris Delano said they enjoyed their week in Florida. The girls said they made phone calls to Sea World and followed the calls up with information explaining the job shadowing program and a letter expressing their desire to work there.

Gould said that the administrators were impressed with the girls' letter and approved their request to work at Sea World for career week.

The girls said they did a lot of observing and helped with groups of students visiting the facility.

Delano said they both enjoyed working with the animals. "We fed the same manatee, Little Joe, that George Bush bottle fed," she said. The girls also talked with the whale and dolphin trainers and helped care for the Sea World's penguins.

Much further up the East Coast, Kristen Powell spend the week in Portland working with the community education coordinator of the AIDS Project.

Powell said she attended a two day seminar at Southern Maine Technical College conducted by the project coordinator. The first day was spent mainly on education and AIDS awareness she said, and on the second day two people with AIDS told of their history with the disease.

Powell said she is considering doing volunteer work for the organization this summer.

Some students went no further than

Letters to the editor

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

To the Editor:

A night to remember—Karlene Bachelder and I went to the Telstar Chapter 2045 of Tri-M. Music Honor Society at Helen C. Berry Auditorium "Operation Desert Song," presented Saturday March 9, by the Telstar Music Department under Band Director, Harry A. Davis.

The program was perfect. It covered every phase of "Desert Operation." Good music and a break at half-time for punch and cookies.

Sad music. Candles lit for the dead and missing. A profile of soldiers praying and crying for comrades lost in the desert. One playing Taps. With the grand finale of past veterans coming down the aisle to stand at attention in front of the stage while the audience waved American flags and the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." I heard a baby softly crying in the audience, was it crying for her dad?

Credit goes to the students and all those who made it possible. God bless America and everyone. "A night to remember."

HANDICAPABLE KIDS' NEEDS

To the Editor:

I read with interest Ellen Marshall's letter last week. She wants the best possible education for her children and who doesn't? When you lack accessibility to a school building parents of handicapped students sometimes end up wanting the basic possible education for their children!

What does Ms. Marshall propose the district do with these students while the addition to Crescent Park becomes a reality? It is impossible for the district to continue juggling classes that have handicapped students in them each and every year.

I agree portable classrooms are not ideal. I had a daughter that went through that in the fourth grade but with the situation Bethel finds itself in, concerning their elementary schools nothing is going to be ideal. I don't understand why closing Ethel Bisbee would cause a loss in staff. Wouldn't that staff also move to Crescent Park? Tough times require tough decisions and the best that we can give our students during these times may not be ideal. But we do need to consider the entire student population in all these decisions.

GET SERIOUS ABOUT EDUCATION

To the Editor:

We as a country have to get serious about education as a cornerstone to our economy, and to our society. In terms of skill and education, barriers to enter the workplace are rising. In the past the labor market had much greater diversity, with minimum skills you could get a decent paying job. Today those jobs are few and far between. Education today needs creativity and insight. It needs opportunities for development so our children are prepared for the future. We need exceptional leadership to help our children face a changing world. These cannot happen by cutting educational budgets.

If we start cutting more educational programs we start limiting our children's futures, if we limit our children's opportunities to acquire different skills, we as citizens will be responsible for placing barriers on our children's future. Twenty to 30 years from now we will be judged and evaluated based on the quality of education we have given our children. On April 25 we voters have an opportunity to show our children and ourselves that we are concerned about their futures. We need to hold onto standards for higher education and ratify the budget sent to us by the SAD #4 directors.

ROADS ARE A MESS

To the Editor:

The other night I took a ride over "Lovers Lane" (This is the neighborhood that I grew up in). The whole lane was as dark as a tomb, a street light that was installed 55 years ago had been removed.

I then ventured out Vernon Street and the whole area was lit up like Times Square. Need one wonder why? I was told that the lights were removed to save money for the town. How much did it cost the town to burn the lights on the common all winter?

By the condition of some of the streets in Bethel and the sidewalk on Broad Street, I would say that not all the "Scuds" landed in Israel. Let's take a look at the condition of Mill Hill. I have heard it called a lot of things that I have never heard of before and wouldn't know how to spell either.

Mechanic and Spring streets are like riding a roller coaster. This is bad for the front end and springs on any car, even mine.

SCHOOL BUS GOES SOUTH

To the Editor:

For the past few months, I have been inquiring as to why one of our district school buses is being taken home from Bryant Pond to South Paris everyday, after students are all dropped off. This bus at the end of the day is a mile and a quarter from the Woodstock school, compared to 12 miles one way to South Paris.

The first response I got was "That is saving the district money." "Fine" I said, but show me in figures as to how it's saving money. The next response I got was a letter stating this bus was saving the district six miles a day by taking it home, as there are no winter plug-ins for diesel at the Woodstock school. I'm aware that these buses have to be plugged in, but not 10 months out of the year.

Snow removal would be hampered if parked at Woodstock, again we don't have ten months of snow.

Having the bus home would decrease the chance of vandalism. If someone wants to vandalize, location is no excuse.

If its vandalism and plug-ins that concern the board, bring it down to my place. I'm sure the cost of plugging the bus in will not exceed the cost of diesel, as well as wear and tear of these uncalled for miles.

COMMERCIAL DRIVERS LICENSE

To the Editor:

Talk about car pools and energy saving programs. State and Government beats us all. My wife to take her C.D.L. test had to drive 130 miles alone. In our local area there is nobody to pool a ride with. She talked with several others at the test site and found they also had to come a long ways alone.

Some were late and couldn't take the test that day and had to take the test another day because a few could not find the armory. Not being a native to be on time. (They were not good enough to include a directional map to the armory.)

What burns me to no end is any kindergarten through 12th grade teacher in SAD #4 could be given a small fee to give these tests in the evening hours both honestly and accurately in one of SAD #4 buildings. Town managers, selectmen, local law officers, police and wardens could have also given these tests and workers wouldn't have to take a whole day because of the 1 p.m. timing and lose pay, which most families can't afford to lose.

State Government including Counties waste money. They're jealous of hard-working people who try to be thrifty and spend their meager budget wisely and want them to go broke along with management.

All this testing in my way of thinking hasn't improved the courtesy of our tractor trailer drivers. They seem to be less courteous on the road everyday. They drive at high speeds within 10 feet of small cars.

After 57 years of working in highway maintenance I know what I'm talking about.

GRASSROOTS DEMOCRACY IN UPTON—Upton Town Clerk Clayton Thompson and town meeting moderator Steve Wright watched over the ballot box as voters elected officers for the coming year at last week's annual town meeting. The 24 residents attending the meeting quickly, quietly and with little debate dispatched 39 warrant articles.

Gilead

At last year's town meeting voters ultimately approved, but only after debating at length, paying a $3,000 fee for fire protection and a $3,000 fee for ambulance availability.

This year selectmen have not included on the warrant the $4,000 fee that Bethel has asked for fire department availability fees, according to Corriveau.

Instead, selectmen are asking for $12,000 for the operation of the town's fire department and for authorization to borrow up to $60,000 for a fire truck and equipment to upgrade the department.

"We don't want to pay the $4,000 this year to Bethel," said Corriveau. "We might as well put that money into our department. We'd like to upgrade our insurance classification, which would reduce the fire insurance rate for townspeople. We're looking to buy a pumper truck with the largest possible tank we can get for the money."

Bethel is also asking $4,000 for an ambulance availability fee for 1991. Corriveau said Gilead selectmen will ask voters to consider changing ambulance services.

Selectmen have recommended that the town appropriate $2,500 for ambulance service. Corriveau said townspeople will be asked to decide whether or not to raise more money to pay the Bethel fee, or switch ambulance services. Either PACE Ambulance of Norway or Med-Care Ambulance Service of Rumford would charge about $2,500 to cover Gilead, he said.

"We've been looking around at what was approved at other town meetings," he said, "and nobody is asking for that kind of money for ambulance service."

Voters will also be asked to approve $14,000 for town insurance policies, $6,200 for the town dump, $6,040 for town officers salaries, $5,000 for care and maintenance of the municipal buildings, $1,500 for the code enforcement officer, $1,500 for street lighting services, $1,500 for perambulating the town lines and varying funds for several governmental and charitable organizations.

Residents will also elect a selectman, treasurer, tax collector, town clerk and road commissioner.

The town meeting will be held at the town hall on Saturday, March 23 at 7 p.m.

Woodstock

pected increases in the school district budget.

But in Woodstock's rare and fortunate case, the town's school tax bill is also likely to go down—due largely to increases in the state's real estate valuations for the other towns that make up SAD #4.

Town Manager Vern Maxfield said the town's current mill rate ($18.90 per $1,000 of assessed valuation) is almost certain to go down. How far it drops, he said, will be determined by the size of the school budget eventually approved at the district's annual budget meeting on April 25.

The $41,000 drop in the town's municipal budget is due largely to the selectmen's decision to cut back on major new projects and to a $10,000 decrease in the amount of money being sought for the town's roads accounts.

The new project the selectmen have recommended for the year are relatively inexpensive: for example, $5,000 to construct an eaves over the three garage doors at the new town garage, $3,000 to repair the public wharf at the end of Lake Street, and $2,500 to build a vault to store town records.

And if voters approve, Maxfield said, each of these projects would be funded from reserve accounts rather than new taxation.

The selectmen have also recommended that the town appropriate $55,000 from fund balance to help reduce the tax commitment for 1991.

The recommended amount is $20,000 less than last year, in part, Maxfield said, because the selectmen want to keep enough money in reserve to offset the impact of any increases in school taxes for 1992—when the state's real estate assessment of the town is likely to increase.

Voters at this year's meeting will also be asked to pick a new selectman and school director for the town. Selectman Dennis Poland is not seeking reelection, nor is School Director Floyd Keniston (who is filling out the unexpired term of Denise Putnam).

Maxfield said Road Foreman Percy Monk is seeking the selectman's post, and Marcel Polak hopes to fill the school director's slot. No other candidates have yet stepped forward, he said.

This year's meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Woodstock School.

Upton

Residents also approved $4,000 for landfill operation, but that money will not go towards the Department of Environmental Protection's $6,800 landfill license renewal fee.

The dump site's licensing permit from DEP ran out in September, but the town has continued to use the dump without paying the required permit fee.

LeCompte said he was frustrated with recent newspaper articles about the landfill controversy between the town, the DEP, and James River Corp., which owns the land the dump is on. He said the whole issue has been blown out of proportion.

"We don't want to fight with the DEP or James River," he said. "We're going to make a move in the next few weeks one way or another."

When one resident expressed concern over the possibility that the DEP could fine the town a $10,000 per day for each day the landfill has been in use since its license ran out, LeCompte told the crowd, "They can't get blood from a stone. We've got $70,000, enough to last 7 days." He added, "If you read the article in the Lewiston Sun, it said 62 other towns in the state may also be in this position. If the DEP fined them $10,000 a day, now that would balance McKernan's budget."

He added that the town's landfill was on the state's top ten list of clean, well-operated landfills two years ago.

"I don't think the state is going to come down on the town of Upton when two years ago our landfill was rated one of the cleanest in the state," he said.

215 highway deaths in 1990

Maine closed out 1990 with 215 highway fatalities, 23 more than 1989, but five less than the five year average.

Richard E. Perkins, Director of the Bureau of Highway Safety, attributes the increase in deaths over 1989 to many factors including alcohol.

Though the overall trend in alcohol-related highway deaths has been downward over the last five years, the rate of alcohol-related deaths was up slightly (from 32.2 percent to 37.7 percent) in 1990. With OUI arrests substantially increasing each year, Perkins worries that the public is again becoming complacent regarding the impaired driving issue.

average) in all six content areas. However, the overall eighth-grade scores for reading, writing, and, to a lesser extent, mathematics, were improved still further by the performance of students who did not take the fourth-grade test here, but who later transferred into the district.

Contrary to the prevailing statewide pattern, the transfer students posted better scores than their more settled classmates.

Of the 84 students in this year's eighth grade, all but three were included in the test scoring. The percentage of students excluded in this round of testing is roughly equal to the statewide percentage.

Of the students tested at Telstar in total, girls (54 percent of the total) outperformed their male classmates in reading, writing, mathematics and humanities. Local boys outscored girls in science and social studies.

Telstar Middle School Principal Bruce Bell attributed the improved scores to a districtwide program upgrading. "The eighth-grade scores are not just a middle school effect," he said. "It's a team effort that includes the elementary schools."

By way of example, Bell pointed to the recent Million Minutes of Reading campaign and to the Breadloaf Writing Program. Of the latter, he said, "I'm absolutely convinced that the implementation of that program has improved writing skills at all grade levels."

In addition to measuring achievement levels in the various content areas, the MEA test also includes a number of non-scored questionnaire items designed to provide background information on student groups and their in- and out-of-school activities. Interestingly, one of the most significant differences between the Telstar eighth-graders and their counterparts in the rest of Maine turned up in response to a questionnaire item about their outside-school reading patterns.

Statewide, about one eighth-grader in three (36 percent) said they read for pleasure or information everyday. But at Telstar more than half the students (52 percent) indicated that they have now made such reading a daily part of their outside-of-school routine.

In nearby SAD #17, where students generally score somewhat higher than in SAD #44, the most recent scores were a disappointment—bottoming out well below the state average. Officials in the Oxford Hills district attribute the poor performance to an academically weak class and an unsettling atmosphere in the school (due to the resignation of its principal) at the time of the testing.

THIS WEEK AT THE Moses Mason House

The Society has just acquired reprints of the classic "The White Hills: Their Legends, Landscape and Poetry," by Thomas Starr King. Just out from Heritage Books, this volume is a reprint of the 1871 edition and contains several references to Bethel.

Rev. Thomas Starr King (1824-1894) was a prominent Unitarian clergyman, orator and author noted for his writings on the natural beauties of the American landscape. King eventually lived in California where he died and is buried. Anyone wishing to purchase a copy of this important regional book should come to the Society's headquarters, the Dr. Moses Mason House during regular business hours (8-4, M-F) or call 824-2908 for further information.

The pictorial history of Bethel, being prepared at this time by the Society's Curator of Collections, is nearing completion. With nine chapters tracing the evolution of the town from its earliest days to the present and several hundred illustrations, the draft will soon be reviewed by the Society's Publication Committee before submission to the printer. A number of unusual photographs never before published will be included in the book due to be out later in the year.

The following was found in the Oxford Democrat for November 3, 1868: "We heard two old men the other day talking about the weather in Oxford County 42 years ago. In the year (1823) a foot of snow fell the 20th of October and did not go off in the woods till next spring. Many persons had not harvested their corn and potatoes. One harvest was peculiar that year. The beechnuts had not fallen from the trees, and soon after the snow fell, a crust formed on the surface when the beechnuts fell and slid into the hollows where they were gathered in large quantities."

LOOKING BACK

10 years ago: The barn located on the former Edmund Smith farm in Mason off the West Bethel Flat Road lost part of its roof during the gale force winds which prevailed the previous week. Successful candidates for three year terms on the board of selectmen for Bethel were Patricia C. Doen with 244 votes and Arlan R. Jodrey with 186 votes. Other candidates were David E. Brown, 137 votes, John T. Grover 136, Irving F. York 83 and Charles Gibson 71. George and Harriette Stowell were honored at a dinner party in Bryant Pond in honor of their 45th wedding anniversary. Birth: Kurt Allen Milligan; Deaths: Talbot Crane, Alice Kimball Fales.

20 years ago: Telstar Regional High School students journeyed to Portland to appear on the Dave Astor Show. The Mundt-Allen Post American Legion was host of the Oxford County Council, American Legion and Auxiliary. Deaths: Julia M. Moor.

30 years ago: Elaine D. Bryant was crowned Miss Oxford County at Gould Academy's Bingham Gymnasium. Gail Learned was crowned Andover's Winter Carnival Queen. Honor parts were announced for West Paris High School: Natalie E. Folvinen, Valedictorian and Lloyd M. Rowe, Salutatorian. Mary Jo Head of West Bethel was given a surprise birthday party. Birth: Catherine Gay James; Marriage: Parker W. Daye and Agnes Creser; Deaths: Grace M. Allen, Orman F. Bennett, Linda M. Korhonen, Ruja M. Lilmatta.

40 years ago: A mistrial was declared by Superior Court Justice Granville Gray at Rumford in the case of Albert Kimball charged with manslaughter. The Citizen carried an article on the centenary of the first train arriving in Bethel, March 10, 1851.

Gould Academy announced honor parts for the 1961 commencement: Laura Wilson, Bethel, Valedictorian; Salutatorian, Rosemary Kelly, East Hiram; Charlotte Stevens, Bethel, third honors; Nancy Van Den Kerkhofen, Fourth honors. Deaths: Henry Flint, Wallace E. Cummings, Abby A. Grover, Cara Wheeler, Nellie Holt, Maude Rice, Lucy S. Briggs, Nellie Noyes.

50 years ago: Ralph and Helen Berry were given a surprise "pound party" in celebration of their 27th wedding anniversary by their children. The Van Telephone and Telegraph Company expanded its operations into three towns. Richard and Rita Davis entertained members of the Davis Mill crew at their home. Whist was enjoyed with first prize going to Clyde Brooks and the consolation to Arthur Gibbs. Marriage: Archie R. Sanborn and Matilda M. Carbbe; Death: Susie Barker Twitchell.

Maine Media Women offer scholarships

Maine Media Women, a statewide organization of communications specialists, is offering two scholarships to help further media careers.

Women of all ages intending to pursue or advance a career in communications are encouraged to apply. Application forms may be obtained by writing to Dottie Laber, MMW Scholarships Committee, 17 Sunset Dr., Orono, Me., 04461. Three letters of reference should accompany each application.

The deadline for applications is Monday, April 1. The scholarships will be awarded at the Maine Media Women's annual meeting in May.

April Fools means it's Pole, Paddle, Paw time

It's time for Sunday River Cross Country Ski Center's annual April Fool's Pole Paddle and Paw race. This event is designed as a celebration of the close of the winter season and transition into spring.

The race is a triathlon composed of skiing, canoeing and snowshoeing. It must be run as a two member team with each member participating in each event. The skiing section is two miles long on easy terrain, beginning at the Cross Country Ski Center to the Artist's Covered Bridge.

From this point the skis are left behind in exchange for a canoe, life jacket and paddle for a two and a half mile paddle along the Sunday River. Snowshoes, which have been stashed in the canoe, are strapped on and racers proceed to Sunday River Cross Country Ski Center to the finish line.

The race is on Saturday, March 30 at 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. Participants must supply their own equipment including an approved personal flotation device. The entry fee per team is $25, which includes a t-shirt and post race refreshments.

The race has developed into a fun-for-all day—with costumes, silliness and lots of laughs. Participation is open to all and be prepared for anything. For information and application call or write Sunday River Cross Country Ski Center at RFD 2 Box 1680, Bethel, Maine 04217 or call Paula Michniewicz at 824-2410.

Recycling bins still seeking loving homes

Marie Bartlett, marketing and education director for Oxford County Regional Solid Waste Corp., said although people seem very interested in recycling, they are not picking up their free waste containers at town halls and fire stations.

"It's kind of slow," said Bartlett. "It's not often that the town gives you something for free. I would encourage people to go in and, please, pick up their containers."

She said she may start handing out the containers personally. "It might be that I'll have to bring them down to the transfer stations myself and pass them out," she said.

Bartlett said anyone who has a problem picking up their container can call her at the Greenwood Town Office or at the waste corporation office in South Paris at 743-8499.

Career week

the school system to look into possible careers.

Becky Hanscom is planning to attend the University of Maine at Farmington this fall and major in elementary education. She spent the week at Crescent Park School working with first-graders.

"I was surprised at how many different personalities they have," she said. "They're so busy."

Hanscom said working with the first-graders reinforced her plans to go into elementary education, but the experience changed her mind about what minor she would choose in college.

"Because of working with a handicapped student," she said, "I'm thinking about changing my minor to special education instead of foreign language."

Michelle Konkright wanted to learn more about employment in outdoor recreation, but she also wants to be active in community affairs after high school. So she decided to job shadow Newry Selectman Steve Wight.

Wight is the owner of Sunday River Inn and is also involved in a variety of community activities.

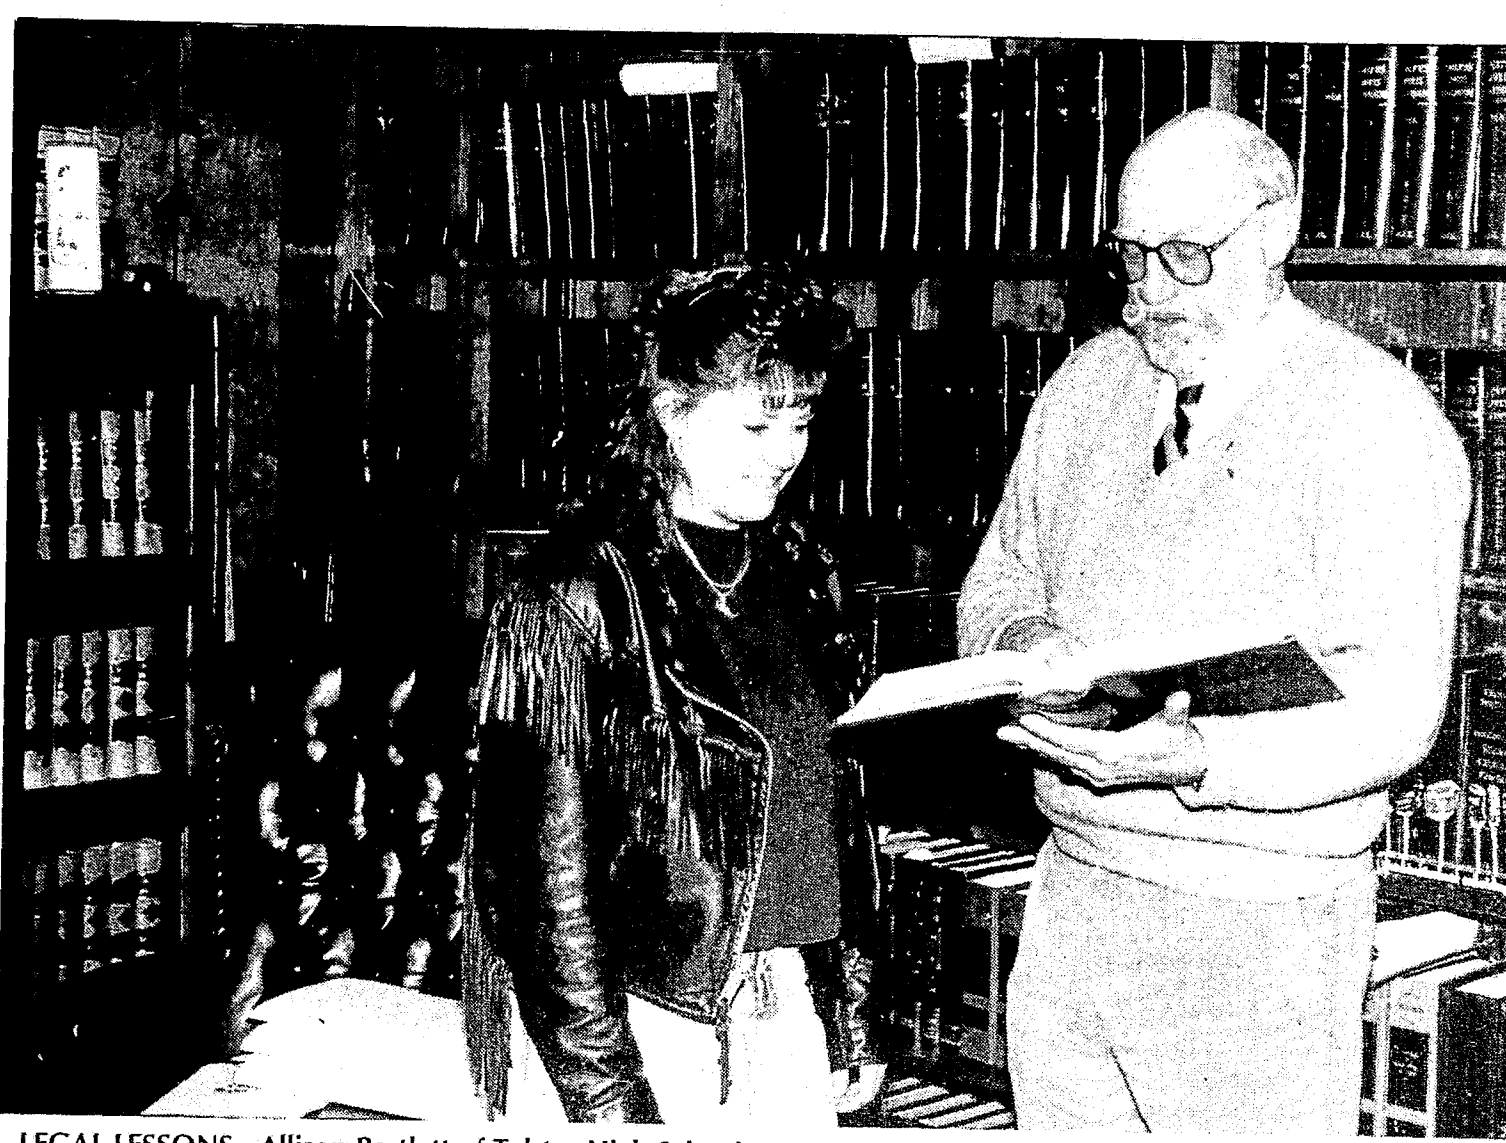

Konkright's week with Wight took her from an early morning Rotary meeting to an evening at Upton's annual town meeting, which Wight moderated.

She also attended a Newry selectman's meeting.

Konkright observed the outdoor recreation industry while working at the inn. She said she was surprised by the amount of paperwork running an inn requires.

She also learned about the importance some local business owners place on tourism, by attending last week's meeting of local legislators with two area chambers of commerce.

Wight, who is also a trustee of the Bethel Congregational Church, took LEGAL LESSONS—Allison Bartlett of Telstar High School spent career week job shadowing Bethel Attorney Michael O'Donnell. Bartlett and O'Donnell toured the South Paris court building and also went to court in Rumford. Here they confer in O'Donnell's lawfully book-lined office.

Konkright with him to a meeting with an architect regarding an upcoming church construction project.

Michelle said she enjoyed her week of activities but added, "He's busy, very busy."

While Konkright went from meeting to meeting last week, her brother Mike, along with Brandon Moore and Christian Hutchins worked at the SAD #44 bus garage.

The boys helped replace an engine in a school bus and were given the not so glamorous job of sweeping out the garage.

Allison Bartlett worked with Attorney Michael O'Donnell last week.

This was Bartlett's second year of looking into careers related to law. Last year she job shadowed former Bethel Chief of Police, Brian Stowell.

She said her interest in law stems from her father, who has been a policeman and is now a private detective in Portland.

Bartlett toured the South Paris court building and went to court in Rumford with O'Donnell.

"It was different than I thought it would be," she said. "There's a lot of work involved, paperwork especially. I still hope to pursue something in law. Maybe a juvenile case worker. I'm interested in working with kids."

Bartlett said career week was a worthwhile part of the educational process. "It lets you find out if you really want to do something—before you go to college for it," she said.

Bethel Farmers' Market annual meeting Monday

The Bethel Farmers' Market will hold its annual start-up meeting on March 25, at 3:30 p.m. in Room 106 at Telstar High School.

The group will discuss the use of weights and measures at the market and insurance costs for the coming season. The length of the market season and the times it will be open will also be determined.

A market master will be elected and the group will appoint an advertising director.

Last year's Market Master, Kate Slattery, said she invites anyone interested in selling their agricultural wares, such as, produce, jams, jellies, fruit, tools, and agricultural crafts, to attend Monday's meeting.

Bethel police log—

On Saturday, March 9 at 1:24 a.m. a Bethel resident requested police assistance with removing an unwanted subject from his home.

At 7:35 a.m. a Lebanon, N.H. truck driver reported that he had pulled over at a West Bethel, Route 28, turnout out to sleep. However, upon awakening he discovered that the truck's rear tires were frozen in the ground. Police called for a wrecker.

At 7:40 p.m. a Bethel resident reported a suspicious vehicle on his woodlot.

On Sunday, March 10 at 4:28 a.m. Oxford County Fire Control requested that police assist at a rescue scene on the Flat Road in West Bethel.

At 11:30 p.m. a Bethel business clerk reported that there appeared to be a minor outside her store trying to solicit beer from her customers.

On Monday, March 11 at 9:05 a.m. a Bethel resident reported finding a ski boot on Route 26.

At 12:05 p.m. a Bethel resident reported a two vehicle accident on a private property parking lot.

At 10 p.m. a Bethel police officer responded with an Oxford County Sheriff's deputy to a report of a missing child at a Newry business. The child had been found before the officers arrived.

On Tuesday, March 12 at 12:05 p.m. police received a complaint from a Paradise Road resident regarding unauthorized vehicles parking in local handicapped zones.

At 3 p.m. a Grover Hill resident reported a suspicious vehicle on a near-by woodlot.

On Wednesday, March 13 at 8:05 a.m. a Bethel resident reported harassing phone calls.

At 8:30 the Bethel Town Manager requested extra patrol on Main Street while debris on the street, left from the Dunn residence fire, was cleaned up.

On Thursday, March 14 at 12 p.m. a Bethel business owner reported the theft of two snow boards, each valued at $450.

At 2:31 p.m. a SAD #44 employee reported that unauthorized people were dumping trash in a local elementary school dumpster.

At 4 p.m. a Newry resident complained of a vehicle passing her in an unsafe manner on the Sunday River Road.

At 9:27 p.m. police responded to a Bethel business alarm.

On Friday, March 15 at 10 a.m. a Bethel business reported the theft of rented skis.

At 4:15 p.m. a local civic group reported the theft of 45-60 chairs from their hall.

Agnes Gray School

By MARTA CLEMENTS

This has been a busy week. Spring plans are in the making.

Orders for Agnes Gray School T-shirts and sweatshirts will be taken until March 29. This is not a fundraising project. The shirts are sold at cost as a school and community spirit project. Orders can be sent in to the school or placed at West Paris Video or West Paris Hardware.

A basketball tournament is being planned for the entire week of March 25. Games will be played in the evenings and all day on Saturday, March 30. This will be a fundraising event and proceeds will be turned over to the Oxford Hills Athletic Boosters to help defray the cost of our new timer/clock. The Boosters work for all the schools in the district, not just the high school.

The Oxford Hills Boosters are also helping to sponsor a Baseball Card and Memorabilia Show. This will be held at the Oxford Hills High School on Sunday, April 14, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. There will be an admission charge of $1. Door prizes will be awarded, concessions and 30 dealer tables. For further information you may call 743-9409.

Our Parent Volunteer meeting was held Tuesday night with an extensive agenda. Under old business we discussed what to buy for computer equipment with our walk-a-thon money, and a decision should be coming forth soon. The Clothes Closet has been organized and we are encouraging parents not only to donate used clothing, but to come in and take clothing that can be used. We are encouraging the hours of 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., but we can accommodate other times for working parents. Please help us recycle these good clothes!

Under new business, we discussed the possibility of having a story line, which could be called after school hours for children to listen to stories over the telephone. And Mr. Burke reported on the Public Access Channel which is being made accessible to those interested in learning more about this service will be held at Telstar on March 19 at 7 p.m. We will have our own channel 4 for local programming and bulletins. Sounds great!

Our next Parent Volunteer meeting has been set for Tuesday, April 9, at 7 p.m. The agenda will be an organizational one with election of officers. If anyone is interested in running for office please step forth and let us know.

Classroom news this week: Kindergarten classes are working on their Color Word Books at their writing center. They are studying sets of three and four by gluing toothpicks onto dark paper to make a design. They are studying the letter 'U' and are making them out of clay.

The first-graders are beginning the study of eggs in science class. They have listed all the ideas of what they want to know about eggs. They are beginning an egg book called, what else, "My Egg Book." In reading they have a new wall card called Mother Bear. They are learning about the sound. The schwa sound can be made by all the vowels and sounds like the 'a' in the word about. They are reviewing "outlaw words," words that do not follow sounds or rules that we know.

The second-graders have been reading about quilts and they enjoyed a visit from Dixie Inman this week. Mrs. Inman brought in quilts in various stages of completion to show. She also displayed the tools she works with and explained how the quilts are put together. Three patterns presented were the Maybasket, the Split Rail and the Irish Chain. In science the dinosaur project is well under way. Each student has been assigned a dinosaur to study and represent when they culminate with their parade. They are writing dinosaur stories and the whole class is reading "Dinosaur Paw," by Patricia Reilly Giff. In Math they are continuing with their unit on money. A little store has been set up and play money is earned all week for spending on Friday. Aaron Brough and Stanley Hill are at the head of the class in making change, so they are the storekeepers. The children are having fun while they are learning.

The third-graders have finished Beverly Cleary's, "Ralph and the Motorcycle" and are hoping to watch the video. They are also studying money in math.

The fourth-graders are presenting oral book reports this week, and are making get-well cards for a classmate, Mills Smith, who is in the hospital with a broken leg. Get well soon, Mills.

My fifth-graders have enjoyed visitors this week. Mr. Tim Berger came in for his last program of the year about drug and alcohol prevention. This time the focus was on alcohol. The class has also written thank you notes to the local businesses who sponsor Mr. Berger and his program. Mrs. Patty Whitman from the Woodstock school visited one day to observe a classroom in West Paris. Although we tried to have business as usual there were some necessary disruptions. The RIF Reading is fundamental, free book program took place during the morning. In the afternoon, the school nurse appeared to take the heights and weights of grades one, three, and five.

The sixth-graders have published

OM CHAMPIONS—Katie Chapman, left, Caitlin Bass, Marcy LaVallee, Julie Ludlam, Shawna Roderick and Emily Parsons were on the first place Odyssey of the Mind team competing in the transformation category at the recent Western Maine Regional OM Competition. The girls will travel to the state tournament in Rockland, April 6.

their children's stories, turned in their nutrition reports and wrapped up a social studies unit with a test. Several parents were able to visit our music classes this week as part of our Music in Our Schools Week.

Things don't seem to be slowing down. Now that spring is on its way we seem to be busier than ever!

News from

Woodstock School

A message from the principal

Congratulations go to all of the students who participated in the Basketball Tournament. It was a fine end to a successful season. The sportsmanship was terrific and the effort was tremendous. The support from parents is extremely important to the program. Our experience with Paul Sarvis is continuing. The students are enjoying the introduction to artistic performance. He has been a most welcome guest at Woodstock.

The Spring Concert is now in the planning stages. The date is set for April 11 at 7 p.m.

Planning is now beginning for Spring activities to prepare all of our students for next year. As always, we will be looking forward to parent input and assistance as we prepare for 1991-92 Kindergarten registration scheduled for May 20 and Step Up Day will be held on May 31.

Plans are being made for informational meetings to be held this spring for both Kindergarten and students entering Woodstock and for those students leaving for Telstar. We will make every attempt to make these transitions as smooth as possible. I hope all of the students enjoy the three-day weekend.

Francis N. Boynton, Principal

Family Night planned for SAD #44 Chapter I

It's Family Night time again for SAD #44 Chapter I program. Thursday, April 4, is the date for this year's district-wide Family Night celebration.

The Chapter I teachers are making plans which include old favorites like live entertainment and the popular Books 'n Things Book Fair.

There will be new features with something for everyone in the family. Parents are being asked to reserve the evening, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. to come to Telstar Cafeteria to share their students' accomplishments.

The Knights of Pythias met on Monday night. The group will conduct the installation of officers at their next meeting, Wednesday, March 25 at 7 p.m. at the town hall.

The Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday, March 20 at the home of Violet Swain. Recent club activities include donations to the funds of Frances Poor, Thomas Learned and Raymond Hutchins.

The Andover School will hold the sports banquet on Thursday, March 21 at 6 p.m. at the school.

The Service Circle members recently met for dinner at the Far East Restaurant in Mexico. After their meal they returned to the home of Judy Michaud for a meeting. Their next meeting will be held Thursday, April 9 at 7 p.m. at the home of Madeline Wells.

Parents and teachers have done a great job representing the Andover school while the proposed budget cuts are discussed. Again the district would like to move our sixth-graders to Bethel, a move that is heavily opposed by town residents.

Brian O'Connell of Lynn, Mass, and Phillip Castellano of Ossipee, N.H. recently spent their school vacations visiting their uncle, Rick Donovan. Much of their time was spent skiing at Sunday River.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Swain and children, Gregory, Matthew and Jenny, of Jericho, Vt. were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swain. The boys stayed a while longer enjoying the school break.

Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Emery, has spent the week at Castleton College, in Castleton, Vt. He is spending career week "shadowing" athletic trainers at the school.

Kristen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Delano, chose to spend career week behind the scenes at Sea World in Orlando, Fla.

Kier, age seven, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Simmons, deserves congratulations. His poem "What do I do?" will be published in the April edition of "Highlights" magazine.

Trudy Akers was recently called to York Beach to attend the funeral of her aunt, Beryl Hillon, a former Andover resident.

Get well wishes to Raymond Hutchins who is undergoing tests in Boston.

Congratulations to Miss Erin Adams who did such a beautiful job of performing as Sister Maria in the production of The Sound of Music at Muskie Auditorium at Mountain Valley High School in Rumford three nights last week. Norma and I, Kassi and Tara attended on Friday evening.

Saturday Norma and David went to Portland where they met Brandon and Tara and all attended a Mariners Hockey game at the Cumberland County Civic Center.

Ethel and Craig Turner and family visited me awhile Saturday afternoon, and went to Rumford in the evening to see The Sound of Music.

I made another trip to Rumford on Wednesday and walked to Myra's the first time since January.

Robert Polson was at the Conway Hospital a few days this week undergoing tests. He came home Thursday night.

Tom Parsons has come home from two weeks in Florida. Peter Parsons of Hebron, Conn. is also spending some time with his father.

Congratulations Sheri on your birthday—next year you will be a teenager.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Your Income Tax Refund

These are typical of questions asked by taxpayers and are presented as a public service of this publication and the IRS.

Q. I am mailing my tax return today. How long will it take IRS to send me my refund?

A. Normal processing time for most refund returns is eight weeks. Usually, the earlier you file your return, the faster you will receive your refund.

Q. My husband owes child support from a previous marriage. Will the IRS take our refund to pay his delinquent child support?

A. Your refund may be reduced by amounts you owe for past-due child support or debts to another federal agency. The IRS will notify you if this happens. However, if you are the spouse of a person who owes past-due amounts for these obligations and the reduced refund relates to an overpayment on a joint return, you may be able to get a refund of your share of the overpayment before it is used to pay the past due amount.

Q. How can I get information about my refund?

A. If it has been at least eight weeks since you filed your return (four weeks after the acknowledgement date, if you filed electronically), you can call Tele-Tax, IRS' automated refund information system. Have a copy of your tax return available because you will need to supply the first social security number shown on the return, your filing status and the exact amount of the refund when you call. If information about your refund is not available, please wait at least seven days before trying again. This will allow the information to be updated. Tele-Tax numbers are in your tax package.

Q. What's the fastest way to get my income tax refund?

A. File your return electronically. Your refund can be on its way to you within two to three weeks. You can also have your refund deposited into your checking or savings account by "Direct Deposit."

Q. Does the IRS ever pay interest on refunds?

A. Yes. If your return is error-free, and you do not receive your refund within 45 days from the date the return was due or the date you filed your return, whichever is later, IRS will pay you interest. Interest rates that IRS charges and pays are set quarterly by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Time Running Out? Extend with 4868

If you're running out of time to file your federal tax return, you may qualify for a 4-month extension. Remember, however, filing Form 4868, "Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return," only extends the date you are required to file. You still must pay the federal taxes you owe by April 15, 1991. Underpayment of your taxes will result in interest and sometimes penalty charges.

To get a 4-month extension:

1. Send in Form 4868 with

2. any taxes owed by April 15, 1991.

Once you are ready to file your return:

1. Use Form 1040 and remember to list any payment you made with your extension on line 58 by August 15, 1991 or

2. Use Form 1040A and write "Form 4868" on line 28d and list any payment you made with your extension by August 15, 1991.

Call IRS toll-free at 1-800-829-3676 to order Form 4868 if you need the automatic 4-month extension.

TEAMWORK—Dan Hannon and friend take the low road to the high post in Monday night's donkey basketball game. Proceeds of the game will benefit Telstar's Future Business Leaders of America and boys basketball team.

Reception for Grovers at Calvary Congregational

Calvary Congregational Church cordially invites everyone in the area to join us March 24, at 2:30 p.m. for a reception honoring Rev. and Mrs. Donald Grover, who have faithfully served the Lord here in Andover for 10 years.

There will be a brief program, followed by refreshments. The Grovers' last Sunday will be March 31.

MT. ABRAM FISH AND GAME

Mt. Abram Fish and Game will meet Thursday, March 21 at the Bethel Methodist Church, at 6 p.m. potluck supper will be followed by business meeting and entertainment.

Eric Wight will exhibit and discuss his Indian artifacts. The public is invited.

Rotary Club notes

Rick Bennett, state representative was the guest speaker at the Tuesday, March 12 breakfast meeting. He was guest of Rotarian Al Barth, also a state representative. Rick expressed concern about the extended budget negotiations and felt it was important to keep new taxes at a minimum. He is in favor of limiting terms of all who serve in state government and is very supportive of continued tourism promotion. Rick is a dedicated freshman legislator who is willing to listen to his constituents. He serves the town of Greenwood locally, where he holds public visiting hours once a month.

Bob Saunders gave Rotary information and quoted Rotary founder Paul Harris.

Bob, Steve Wight and Melinda Remington volunteered to coordinate the international youth visit which will be arriving in western Maine on Sunday, April 14.

Guests this morning were Marilyn Wyman, Bethel; Dick Decato, Oxford Hills; Jane deFrees, Rumford; Debra Ann Denville, Gorham, and Michele Conkright, Newry.

LAST LOCKE MILLS FRUIT ORDER

The Locke Mills Union Church will be receiving the last fruit order of the season on March 27. Orders must be placed by March 24 by calling Elinor Andrews, Bryant Pond, 665-2630.

Fruit available will be Valencia Oranges at $18 per case, $9 half case; pink grapefruit, $15.50 a case or $7.75 a half case.

Please make a note of delivery date as the fruit must be picked up at the church between 3 and 5 p.m. on March 27.

Health Center

Just a reminder of some upcoming events at the Health Center. The Women's Health Conference will take place on March 23, from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The conference will include dynamic presentations, plus a panel discussion, health screenings and lunch—all focused on the special issues of women's health.

Jane Hosterman, president of the board of Bethel Area Health Center will offer a brief welcome and then turn moderator duties over to Jan Stowell for the morning. The program includes general sessions on "Women as Health Care Consumers," presented by Cheryl Daggett, RN, ADM, and "Women and Depression" offered by Lona Hardy, LCSW, MS Ed. "Women and Life Changes" which is a panel discussion which will occur in the afternoon. The moderator for the panel discussion will be Elyssa Thibodeau. The panelists include Miriam Bergman, M.D., who will discuss women and AIDS; Becky Hardy MSW will focus on interpersonal and substance abuse issues; Janet Stowell, R.N., will look at some psychological aspects of aging and grief, and finally Leanne Daley, RN, FNA, will be presenting some general health topics affecting women over 40.

Questions will be taken from the audience. Running concurrently with the panel discussion will be a workshop titled "Healing Our Bodies, Ourselves" presented by Patricia Williams, M.D. This workshop is limited to the first 20 registrants.

The conference promises to be a first in the Bethel area and hopefully with public response the Health Center would like to have annual events around women's issues. To register please call SAD #44 Adult Ed. office at 824-2780. Don't miss it!

The Health Center is also sponsoring another cholesterol/blood pressure series of screenings. On March 25 there will be a screening at the Calvary Congregational Church in Andover from 1-3:30 p.m. Also on March 25 the Bethel Area Health Center will be having screening from 5-8 p.m. On March 27 there will be another screening at the Woodstock Town Office from 1-4 p.m. For appointments please call the Health Center at 824-2193.

GIRL SCOUT DAY CAMP

An informational meeting will be held at Diane Milligan's, Route 5, Rumford Point on Monday, March 25 at 6:30 p.m.

Anyone who has ideas about a Girl Scout Day Camp site should plan to attend. The scouts should have a day camp and different ideas have been expressed concerning this. A day camp could be run for the week with the girls coming Monday and planning their week activities, returning Tuesday to spend the rest of the week there including overnights with camp ending Friday afternoon. Troops would be invited to participate also. Adults need not commit to a total week but could sign up for a day or an overnight. Please call Diane at 864-2345 for further information.

BETHEL SENIOR CITIZENS

Bethel Senior Citizens met March 13 at the Methodist Church Dining Room with 46 attending.

President Helen Saunders welcomed the group and conducted the meeting. Reports were read and accepted.

The group was invited to Telstar

April 14 at 2 p.m. to attend the celebration of Ryan Bernier becoming an Eagle Scout.

Lineley Wieden read some poems and spoke about the proposed bus trip to Bangor June 7 to visit the Cole Transport Museum. Rudy Royer distributed jars and explained how the cost of the trip could be augmented by the silver savings.

Birthdays included: Maxine Brown, Gladys Jordan, Lyndell Carter, Agnes Haines, Polly Wieden, Alberta Angevine and guest Teneke Ouwinga.

Door prize won by Celia Gorman and mystery package by Mr. Wieden.

After a Blessing by Warren Hart, the Methodist men and women served a turkey dinner with all the fixins, including dessert and cake donated by the IGA.

Teneke Ouwinga, a teacher at Gould, presented a delightful program of slides, anecdotes and information along with wooden shoes and a costume doll of her native Holland. She inspired us to visit the Netherlands, especially at tulip time.

The next meeting will be at the Country Way, South Paris. The program will be presented by Elden Hathaway talking about the old Telephone System of Bryant Pond.

BRYANT POND UNIVERSALIST

The Universalist Church (Unitarian-Universalist) will resume church on March 24 when a communion worship service will be at 9 a.m. with the Rev. Donald M. Hinckley in the pulpit.

On Easter Sunday, Rev. Earle McKinney will be the guest minister, at the 9 a.m. service.

An Easter coffee will be served at 8 a.m. All are cordially invited to attend all services when the church is now open at 9 a.m. on Sundays.

from the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce

We are actively seeking nominations for our Annual Awards and welcome any and all suggestions. The awards are the Henry H. Hastings Award for citizenship, The Business of the Year Award, and three Employee of the Year Awards. One is for the hospitality industry; one is for the service and retail industry and one is for the wood products industry. We also make a presentation to honor the Senior Citizen of the Year, which we accept nominations from the Senior Citizen organization. All nominations should be in writing to The Chamber Office, P.O. Box 439, Bethel, Maine 04217. These awards will be presented at our Annual Award Ceremony, date to be announced.

The Board of Directors met on Thursday, March 14. President George Larson presided. Executive Director, Robin Zinchuk gave a report on the winter meeting of the Maine Association of Chamber Executives, which she attended last week. Noteworthy highlights were presentations by State Economist Helen Rose who shared the national forecast in calling for a recovery in the second and third quarter of this year.

A presentation of the Maine Common Core of Learning from two state educators was very good. This report indicated that teaching curriculum and methodology are going to have to change to meet the world's employment needs in the state 1990s and into the year 2000.

A presentation from an organization Train Rides Northeast shared their vision to return passenger rail service from Portland to Boston and eventually back to the current rail system running from Portland to Augusta via the coastal route then on to Bangor and points beyond. Eventually inland routes could be added if the need existed. This gentleman was very opposed to any further expansion of the state's major highways, which he said encourage more polluting vehicles to enter our state. He cited fares of passenger rail service to be very reasonable. Anyone wishing more information on the organization please contact Robin at The Chamber office.

The Chamber will be holding a general membership meeting on Tuesday, April 2, location to be announced. We welcome any and all members of the chamber to come and let us know how we are doing! Location will be announced in next week's paper.

Leon Favreau, chairman of the Legislative Committee, reported that the committee has been meeting monthly to review current bills.

Jeff Parsons and Suzanne Uhl Meyers reported for the membership committee. They expressed that they need new committee members so that they can effectively go out and visit members if this service is needed. Anyone willing to serve on this committee contact Jeff at 836-3080 or The Chamber office.

Robin reported on plans for the upcoming Mollycoddett Day, July 20. The Chamber again hopes to sell lobster rolls and have the game of chance as well as organize the Mollycoddett Day Classic Race. Central Maine Power, The Bethel Savings Bank and Seltzer & Rydholm (Pepsi) have already signed on as sponsors for the race.

George Larson and Linda Varrell reported for the Long Range Planning Committee. They expected to call a meeting within the next month. Bill Riley reported that we have been invited back to attend the Eastern States Exposition in the Maine Building, this is a September 12-day fair and is a joint venture with The Oxford Hills and Rangeley Lakes Chamber.

Barbara Brown and Robin reported on the annual awards which is being planned.

Cathy Newell, chairperson of The Community Relations and Education Committee, reported on the community access TV channel which Linda Varrell has volunteered to be the chamber representative. Cathy also mentioned that she and Robin were going to meet to plan the small business workshop for the spring, funded through the Carl Perkins Grant.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 a.m. after a lot of business was discussed.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The Bethel United Methodist Women met in the church dining room March 7, with nine present.

Meeting opened by President Jane Gamble, secretary and treasurer reports read and accepted. Silent prayer in memory of Rev. E. Millett Cummings.

Opening poem read by Ginny Keniston. A sunshine box for Jack Parsons will be made ready. Thank you notes read from Richard Davis, Richard Stevens and Leona Flint. Ginny Keniston read a copy of the original rules and regulations of the forming of the Friday Gift Shop from Elsie Davis' memoirs. Cards to be sent to Jack Parsons, Elsie Davis, Chloe Cummings.

March birthdays are Alberta Angevine, Annie Gordon, Betty Perkins, Polly Wieden, Lyndell Carter, Muriel Butters. Refreshments in St. Patrick Day decor were served by hostesses Lyndell Carter and Ethel Ward. Next meeting April 4, Jane Gamble and Ginny Keniston, hostesses.

TELSTAR BOOSTERS TO MEET

High Blood Pressure: Five Things To Do

High blood pressure cannot be cured. Control of blood pressure takes a commitment to several things that can make living with the condition easier. If you have high blood pressure, here are five things you can do:

1. Keep track of your pressure. Home blood pressure monitoring equipment makes possible the obtaining of frequent measures.
2. Reduce salt intake. Cook with less salt and use less table salt. When shopping, purchase foods with low-sodium content as compared to brands with more sodium. And avoid "salty" foods such as potato chips and pretzels. If you are overweight, reducing calorie consumption will facilitate weight loss and may reduce blood pressure.
3. Stay fit. One of the best exercises for all age groups is walking. Walking 20 to 30 minutes three or four times a week will help burn excess calories and give you a feeling of extra energy.
4. Stop smoking. Cigarette smoke contains substances that tend to increase the blood pressure.
5. Take prescribed blood pressure-lowering medicines. The "best" medicines are those that control pressure with a minimum of side effects.

THOUGHTS FROM THE
Pastor's Study

The Bethel Area Clergy Association, with the help of pastors of surrounding churches, brings you these meditations. Not based on any set theme, they will be individual for each pastor. It is hoped you will find in these words, comfort and help for your daily life.

The coming Lord's Day is known as "Palm Sunday," the beginning of Holy Week, the time of year we commemorate the death and resurrection of our blessed Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Unfortunately as with other so-called "religious observations," the real meaning and significance of Palm Sunday is obscured by insignificant and secondary things. For example, Palm Sunday derives its name from the ancient custom of giving recognition to important personages and dignitaries by laying palm leaves before them as they move from place to place. Much as we use the so-called "Red Carpet" welcome today. Thus the use of Palm leaves in observance of Palm Sunday does little to enhance the true meaning of the observance.

The Old Testament prophet Zechariah, the next to the last book in the Old Testament, had prophesied some four hundred years before the event: "Rejoice O daughter of Zion, shout O daughter of Jerusalem, behold thy King cometh unto thee. He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey..." (Zech. 9:9).

Thus this event is fulfillment of this prophecy in utmost detail. How this should confirm our faith in the credibility of the scriptures being the divinely inspired Word of God. Thus the main purpose of Palm Sunday is to proclaim the true identity of Christ as being King as well as Savior.

He was thus recognized at His humble birth as the ancient Wisemen inquired, "Where is He that is born king of the Jews?" (Matt. 2:2). At the time of His death Pilate had an inscription posted on the cross on which He died, printed in Hebrew, Greek and Latin, "Jesus of Nazareth King of the Jews." (Luke 23:28) Thus according to further scripture when Christ comes again to live and reign in this world we read, "...and He hath on His vesture and on His thigh a name written King of Kings and Lord of Lords. (Rev. 19:16).

As we read the account in the four Gospels of Palm Sunday activities we read as they laid Palm branches before Him as He rode on the back of a little donkey the cried, "Hosanna, blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord." Ironically the word "Hosanna" literally means, "save now." The purpose of this first coming was not to deliver the Jewish people from the tyranny of the Roman government as they were indicating by the cry, but by His death on the Cross of Calvary to deliver all mankind from great power, the power and condemnation of sin.

Thus the message of Palm Sunday is that it took none less than "the King of glory" to come down into this sin cursed world to die a shameful ignominious death to save all who would receive Him as Savior.

Therefore, two challenging choices face us. To except Christ as your personal Savior, believing He died in your place to pay for the penalty of your sin. The scriptures tell us that "The wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Rom. 6:23) Secondly, the events of the first Palm Sunday were to identify Christ King as well as Savior. If you have already received as Savior have you ever considered the challenge of making Him King of your life? Giving Him first place, being submissive to His will as revealed in God's Word.

It is most apparent that many have received Christ as Saviour but have never crowned Him king of their lives. Wouldn't this Palm Sunday be an appropriate time to make that all important decision? Won't you at least pray about it!

Obituaries

DOROTHY E. GRANT

Dorothy E. Grant, 75, of 12 Main Street Dixfield, died Saturday, March 16, 1991, at Franklin Memorial Hospital in Farmington after a long illness.

She was born in East Andover Nov. 10, 1915, the daughter of Fred and Erman Perkins Emerson. She was educated in Andover schools and graduated from Andover High School in 1934. Upon graduation, she moved to Dixfield, where she was employed as a domestic housekeeper and then worked and later managed Elliot's Diner of Dixfield, for more than 30 years. She married Kenneth Grant in Dixfield on Feb. 28 1947; Mr. Grant died in March 1988. Mrs. Grant was well-known in the area having been a member of the Dixfield Senior Citizens, a member and past president of the Mothers Club, and a leader of a Brownie Girl Scout troop for several years. She especially enjoyed children and one of the most important things to her were the children of the Sunday School at Dixfield Congregational Church, where she was an active member for many years.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Judith Couture of Oakland and Mrs. Kathy Cressey of Bowdoinham; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Joyce Wood of Fairfield and Mrs. Patricia Binette of Fairfield; a son, William Elliot of Dixfield; a brother Floyd Emerson of Andover; a half-sister, Janet Churchill of Farmington; 10 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by a brother, Roy Emerson and a sister, Gertrude Emerson.

LORA M. NOYES

Lora M. Noyes, 83, of Locke Mills, died Monday, March 18, 1991 at Ledgeview Nursing Home in West Paris.

She was born in West Paris on July 8, 1907, the daughter of John A. Porter and Iza L. Curtis. She was educated in West Paris area schools and graduated from South Paris High School. She was a housewife most of her life and worked at Ecco Wood Products for a short time. She was a member of the South Paris Universalist Church, the Ladies Circle of Locke Mills Union Church, the Community Club of Locke Mills, Bryant Pond Senior Citizens, and Bethel Senior Citizens. She lived in Locke Mills for 46 years, coming from Bryant Pond. She married Roy O. Noyes, who died in 1971.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Whitman of North Edgecomb; a son, Merle L. Noyes of Columbus, Ind.; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, Mar. 21, at 2 p.m. at the Andrews Funeral Home, South Woodstock. Spring interment will be in the Wayside Cemetery, West Paris. Visiting hours are Wednesday 7-9 p.m. In lieu of flowers donations may be made in her memory to Tri-Town Rescue, Box 375, West Paris, Maine 04289.

MY SINCERE THANKS

TEAMWORK—Dan Hannon and friend take the low road to the high post in Monday night's donkey basketball game. Proceeds of the game will benefit Telstar's Future Business Leaders of America and boys basketball team.

Reception for Grovers at Calvary Congregational

Calvary Congregational Church cordially invites everyone in the area to join us March 24, at 2:30 p.m. for a reception honoring Rev. and Mrs. Donald Grover, who have faithfully served the Lord here in Andover for 10 years.

There will be a brief program, followed by refreshments. The Grovers' last Sunday will be March 31.

MT. ABRAM FISH AND GAME

Mt. Abram Fish and Game will meet Thursday, March 21 at the Bethel Methodist Church, at 6 p.m. potluck supper will be followed by business meeting and entertainment.

Eric Wight will exhibit and discuss his Indian artifacts. The public is invited.

Rotary Club notes

Rick Bennett, state representative was the guest speaker at the Tuesday, March 12 breakfast meeting. He was guest of Rotarian Al Barth, also a state representative. Rick expressed concern about the extended budget negotiations and felt it was important to keep new taxes at a minimum. He is in favor of limiting terms of all who serve in state government and is very supportive of continued tourism promotion. Rick is a dedicated freshman legislator who is willing to listen to his constituents. He serves the town of Greenwood locally, where he holds public visiting hours once a month.

Bob Saunders gave Rotary information and quoted Rotary founder Paul Harris.

Bob, Steve Wight and Melinda Remington volunteered to coordinate the international youth visit which will be arriving in western Maine on Sunday, April 14.

Guests this morning were Marilyn Wyman, Bethel; Dick Decato, Oxford Hills; Jane deFrees, Rumford; Debra Ann Denville, Gorham, and Michele Conkright, Newry.

LAST LOCKE MILLS FRUIT ORDER
The Locke Mills Union Church will be receiving the last fruit order of the season on March 27. Orders must be placed by March 24 by calling Elinor Andrews, Bryant Pond, 665-2530.

Fruit available will be Valencia Oranges at $18 per case, $9 half case; pink grapefruit, $15.50 a case or $7.75 a half case.

Please make a note of delivery date as the fruit must be picked up at the church between 3 and 5 p.m. on March 27.

Health Center

Just a reminder of some upcoming events at the Health Center. The Women's Health Conference will take place on March 23, from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The conference will include dynamic presentations, plus a panel discussion, health screenings and lunch—all focused on the special issues of women's health.

Jane Hosterman, president of the board of Bethel Area Health Center will offer a brief welcome and then turn moderator duties over to Jan Stowell for the morning. The program includes general sessions on "Women as Health Care Consumers," presented by Cheryl Daggett, RN, ADM, and "Women and Depression" offered by Lona Hardy, LCSW, MS Ed. "Women and Life Changes" which is a panel discussion will occur in the afternoon. The moderator for the panel discussion will be Elyssa Thibodeau. The panelists include Miriam Bergman, M.D., who will discuss women and AIDS; Becky Hardy MSW will focus on interpersonal and substance abuse issues; Janet Stowell, R.N., will look at some psychological aspects of aging and grief, and finally Leanne Daley, RN, FNA, will be presenting some general health topics affecting women over 40.

Questions will be taken from the audience. Running concurrently with the panel discussion will be a workshop titled "Healing Our Bodies, Ourselves" presented by Patricia Williams, M.D. This workshop is limited to the first 20 registrants.

The conference promises to be a first in the Bethel area and hopefully with public response the Health Center would like to have annual events around women's issues. To register please call SAD #44 Adult Ed. office at 824-2780. Don't miss it!

The Health Center is also sponsoring another cholesterol/blood pressure series of screenings. On March 25 there will be a screening at the Calvary Congregational Church in Andover from 1-3:30 p.m. Also on March 25 the Bethel Area Health Center will be having screening from 5-8 p.m. On March 27 there will be another screening at the Woodstock Town Office from 1-4 p.m. For appointments please call the Health Center at 824-2183.

GIRL SCOUT DAY CAMP

An informational meeting will be held at Diane Milligan's, Route 5, Rumford Point on Monday, March 25 at 6:30 p.m.

Anyone who has ideas about a Girl Scout Day Camp should plan to attend. The scouts should have a day camp and different ideas have been expressed concerning this. A day camp could be run for the week with the girls coming Monday and planning their weeks activities, returning Tuesday to spend the rest of the week there including overnights with camp ending Friday afternoon. Troops would be invited to participate also. Adults need not commit to a total week but could sign up for a day or an overnight. Please call Diane at 364-2345 for further information.

BETHEL SENIOR CITIZENS

Bethel Senior Citizens met March 13 at the Methodist Church Dining Room with 46 attending.

President Helen Saunders welcomed the group and conducted the meeting. Reports were read and accepted.

The group was invited to Telstar

April 14 at 2 p.m. to attend the celebration of Ryan Bernier becoming an Eagle Scout.

Lindley Wieden read some poems and spoke about the proposed bus trip to Bangor June 7 to visit the Cole Transport Museum. Rudy Royer distributed jars and explained how the cost of the trip could be augmented by the silver savings.

Birthdays included: Maxine Brown, Gladys Jordan, Lyndell Carter, Agnes Haines, Polly Wieden, Alberta Angevine and guest Tienke Ouwinga.

Door prize won by Celia Gorman and mystery package by Mr. Wieden.

After a Blessing by Warren Hart, the Methodist men and women served a turkey dinner with all the fixins, including dessert and cake donated by the IGA.

Tienke Ouwinga, a teacher at Gould, presented a delightful program of slides, anecdotes and information along with wooden shoes and a costume doll of her native Holland. She inspired us to visit the Netherlands, especially at tulip time.

The next meeting will be at the Country Way, South Paris. The program will be presented by Elden Hathaway talking about the old Telephone System of Bryant Pond.

BRYANT POND UNIVERSALIST

The Universalist Church (Unitarian-Universalist) will resume church on March 24 when a communion worship service will be at 9 a.m. with the Rev. Donald M. Hinckley in the pulpit.

On Easter Sunday, Rev. Earle McKinney will be the guest minister, at the 9 a.m. service.

An Easter coffee will be served at 8 a.m. All are cordially invited to attend all services when the church is now open at 9 a.m. on Sundays.

Chamber of Commerce

We are actively seeking nominations for our Annual Awards and welcome any and all suggestions. The awards are the Henry H. Hastings Award for citizenship, The Business of the Year Award and three Employee of the Year Awards. One is for the hospitality industry; one is for the service and retail industry and one is for the wood products industry. We also make a presentation to honor the Senior Citizen of the Year, which we accept nominations from the Senior Citizen organization. All nominations should go in writing to The Chamber Office, P.O. Box 439, Bethel, Maine 04217. These awards will be presented at our Annual Award Ceremony, date to be announced.

The Board of Directors met on Thursday, March 14, President George Larson presided. Executive Director, Robin Zinchuk gave a report on the winter meeting of the Maine Association of Chamber Executives, which she attended last week. Noteworthy highlights were presentations by State Economist Jalen Rose who shared the national forecast in calling for a recovery in the second and third quarter of this year.

A presentation of the Maine Common Core of Learning from two state educators was very good. This report indicated that teaching curriculum and methodology are going to have to change to meet the world's employment needs in the state 1990s and into the year 2000.

A presentation from an organization Train Rides Northeast shared their vision to return passenger rail service from Portland to Boston and eventually back to the current rail system running from Portland to Augusta via the coastal route then on to Bangor and points beyond. Eventually inland routes could be added if the need existed. This gentleman was very opposed to any further expansion of the state's major highways, which he said encourage more polluting vehicles to enter our state. He cited fares of passenger rail service to be very reasonable. Anyone wishing more information on the organization please contact Robin at The Chamber office.

The Chamber will be holding a general membership meeting on Tuesday, April 2, location to be announced. We welcome any and all members of the chamber to come and let us know how we are doing! Location will be announced in next week's paper.

Leon Favreau, chairman of the Legislative Committee, reported that the committee has been meeting monthly to review current bills. Jeff Parsons and Suzanne Uhl Meyers reported for the membership committee. They expressed that they read new committee members so that they can effectively go out and visit members if this service is needed. Anyone willing to serve on this committee contact Jeff at 836-3080 or The Chamber office.

Robin reported on plans for the upcoming Mollycoddett Day, July 20. The Chamber again hopes to sell lobster rolls and have the game of chance as well as organize the Mollycoddett Day Classic Race. Central Maine Power, The Bethel Savings Bank and Seltzer & Rydholm (Pepsi) have already signed on as sponsors for the race.

George Larson and Linda Varrell reported for the Long Range Planning Committee. They expected to call a meeting within the next month.

Bill Riley reported that we have been invited back to attend the Eastern States Exposition in the Maine Building, this is a September 12-day fair and is a joint venture with The Oxford Hills and Rangeley Lakes Chamber.

Barbara Brown and Robin reported on the annual awards which is being planned.

Cathy Newell, chairperson of The Community Relations and Education Committee, reported on the community access TV channel which Linda Varrell has volunteered to be the chamber representative. Cathy also mentioned that she and Robin were going to meet to plan the small business workshop for the spring, funded through the Carl Perkins Grant.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 a.m. after a lot of business was discussed.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The Bethel United Methodist Women met in the church dining room March 7, with nine present.

Meeting opened by President Jane Gamble, secretary and treasurer reports read and accepted. Silent prayer in memory of Rev. E. Millett Cummings.

Opening poem read by Ginny Keniston. A sunshine box for Jack Parsons will be made ready. Thank you notes read from Richard Davis, Richard Stevens and Leona Flint, Ginny Keniston read a copy of the original rules and regulations of the forming of the Friday Gift Shop from Elsie Davis' memoirs. Cards to be sent to Jack Parsons, Elsie Davis, Chloe Cummings.

High Blood Pressure: Five Things To Do

High blood pressure cannot be cured. Control of blood pressure takes a commitment to several things that can make living with the condition easier. If you have high blood pressure, here are five things you can do:

1. Keep track of your pressure. Home blood pressure monitoring equipment makes possible the obtaining of frequent measures.

2. Reduce salt intake. Cook with less salt and use less table salt. When shopping, purchase foods with low-sodium content as compared to brands with more sodium. And avoid "salty" foods such as potato chips and pretzels. If you are overweight, reducing caloric consumption will facilitate weight loss and may reduce blood pressure.

3. Stay fit. One of the best exercises for all age groups is walking. Walking 20 to 30 minutes three or four times a week will help burn excess calories and give you a feeling of extra energy.

4. Stop smoking. Cigarette smoke contains substances that tend to increase the blood pressure.

5. Take prescribed blood pressure-lowering medicines. The "best" medicines are those that control pressure with a minimum of side effects.

THOUGHTS FROM THE
Pastor's Study

The Bethel Area Clergy Association, with the help of pastors of surrounding churches, brings you these meditations. Not based on any set theme, they will be individual for each pastor. It is hoped you will find in these words, comfort and help for your daily life.

The coming Lord's Day is known as "Palm Sunday," the beginning of Holy Week, the time of year we commemorate the death and resurrection of our blessed Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Unfortunately as with other so-called "religious observations," the real meaning and significance of Palm Sunday is obscured by insignificant and secondary things. For example, Palm Sunday derives its name from the ancient custom of giving recognition to important personages and dignitaries by laying palm leaves before them as they move from place to place. Much as we use the so-called "Red Carpet" welcome today, the use of Palm leaves in observance of Palm Sunday does little to enhance the true meaning of the observance.

The Old Testament prophet Zechariah, the next to the last book in the Old Testament, had prophesied some four hundred years before the event: "Rejoice O daughter of Zion, shout O daughter of Jerusalem, behold thy King cometh unto thee. He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey..." (Zech. 9:9).

Thus this event is fulfillment of this prophecy in utmost detail. How this should confirm our faith in the credibility of the scriptures being the divinely inspired Word of God. Thus the main purpose of Palm Sunday is to proclaim the true identity of Christ as being King as well as Saviour. He was thus recognized at His humble birth as the ancient Wisemen inquired, "Where is He that is born king of the Jews?" (Matt. 2:2). At the time of His death Pilate had an inscription posted on the cross on which He died, printed in Hebrew, Greek and Latin, "Jesus of Nazareth King of the Jews." (Luke 23:22) Thus according to further scripture when Christ comes again to live and reign in this world we read, "...and He hath on His vesture and on His thigh a name written King of Kings and Lord of Lords." (Rev. 19:16).

As we read the account in the four Gospels of Palm Sunday activities we read as they laid Palm branches before Him as He rode on the back of a little donkey the cried, "Hosanna, blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord." Ironically the word "Hosanna" literally means, "save now." The purpose of this first coming was not to deliver the Jewish people from the tyranny of the Roman government as they were indicating by the cry, but by His death on the Cross of Calvary to deliver all mankind from great power, the power and condemnation of sin.

Thus the message of Palm Sunday is that it took none less than "the King of glory" to come down into this sin cursed world to die a shameful ignominious death to save all who would receive Him as Savior.

Therefore, two challenging choices face us. To except Christ as your personal Savior, believing He died in your place to pay for the penalty of your sin. The scriptures tell us that "The wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Rom. 6:23). Secondly, the events of the first Palm Sunday were to identify Christ King as well as Saviour. If you have already received as Savior have you ever considered the challenge of making Him King of your life? Giving Him first place, being submissive to His will as revealed in God's Word.

It is most apparent that many have received Christ as Saviour but have never crowned Him king of their lives. Wouldn't this Palm Sunday be an appropriate time to make that all important decision? Won't you at least pray about it!

Obituaries

DOROTHY E. GRANT

Dorothy E. Grant, 75, of 12 Main Street Dixfield, died Saturday, March 16, 1991, at Franklin Memorial Hospital in Farmington after a long illness.

She was born in East Andover Nov. 10, 1915, the daughter of Fred and Erman Perkins Emerson. She was educated in Andover schools and graduated from Andover High School in 1934. Upon graduation, she moved to Dixfield, where she was employed as a domestic housekeeper and then worked and later managed Elliot's Diner of Dixfield, for more than 30 years. She married Kenneth Grant in Dixfield on Feb. 28 1947; Mr. Grant died in March 1988. Mrs. Grant was well-known in the area having been a member of the Dixfield Senior Citizens, a member and past president of the Mothers Club, and a leader of a Brownie Girl Scout troop for several years. She especially enjoyed children and one of the most important things to her were the children of the Sunday School at Dixfield Congregational Church, where she was an active member for many years.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Judith Couture of Oakland and Mrs. Kathy Cressy of Bowdoinham; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Joyce Wood of Fairfield and Mrs. Patricia Binette of Fairfield; a son, William Elliot of Dixfield; a brother, Floyd Emerson of Andover; a half-sister, Janet Churchill of Farmington; 10 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by a brother, Roy Emerson and a sister, Gertrude Emerson.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, Mar. 21, at 2 p.m. at the Andrews Funeral Home, South Woodstock. Spring interment will be in the Wayside Cemetery, West Paris. Visiting hours are Wednesday 7-9 p.m. In lieu of flowers donations may be made in her memory to Tri-Town Rescue, Box 375, West Paris, Maine 04289.

LORA M. NOYES

Lora M. Noyes, 83, of Locke Mills, died Monday, March 19, 1991 at Ledgeview Nursing Home in West Paris.

She was born in West Paris on July 8, 1907, the daughter of John A. Porter and Iza L. Curtis. She was educated in West Paris area schools and graduated from South Paris High School. She was a housewife most of her life and worked at Ecco Wood Products for a short time. She was a member of the South Paris Universalist Church, the Ladies Circle of Locke Mills Union Church, the Community Club of Locke Mills, Bryant Pond Senior Citizens, and Bethel Senior Citizens. She lived in Locke Mills for 45 years, coming from Bryant Pond. She married Roy O. Noyes, who died in 1971.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Whitman of North Edgcomb; a son, Merle L. Noyes of Columbus, Ind.; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, Mar. 21, at 2 p.m. at the Andrews Funeral Home, South Woodstock. Spring interment will be in the Wayside Cemetery, West Paris. Visiting hours are Wednesday 7-9 p.m. In lieu of flowers donations may be made in her memory to Tri-Town Rescue, Box 375, West Paris, Maine 04289.
